Quit Lecture, Says Boy Sent to Death Chair

setting a new world record for its type.

Jesse Walker, 19, who killed Samuel Wolchock in his stationery store at 208 Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn, when attempting to rob the store, was arraigned for sentence before Supreme Court Justice Fawcett in Brooklyn. The Justice addressed the prisoner for several minutes. speaking of the gravity of the crime, but Walker shifted his feet uneasily. Then he burst

"I'm not here for a lecture. I am here to be sentenced."

The justice regarded the youth gravely for a moment and without further comment sentenced him to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing.
